South Bronx has always been the hotbed for urban expression and innovation. The community gardens highlighted demonstrate this legacy by providing the visitor a glimpse of South Bronx's unique take on Eco-sustainability, community needs provision, youth and senior involvement, entrepreneurship, indigenous spirituality, animal husbandry and cultural inclusivity. Prepare yourself for a warm, South Bronx welcome!

Community gardens are volunteer-run green spaces where people can come together around growing food and community. Gardens across the city are seeking new members to plant produce and flowers, host events, maintain community spaces, and contribute extra hands for garden projects! Beginners and experienced gardeners are welcome!

NYC Parks GreenThumb supports over 550 community gardens and 20,000 gardeners by providing gardening space, materials and supplies, and technical assistance at no cost. GreenThumb hosts innovative gardening workshops, trainings and conferences.
